LAWTON WINS BIG VICTORY.

HUNDREDS OF REBELS KILLED, WOUNDED AND CAPTURED BY THE GALLANT AMERICAN TROOPS.

PROVINCE OF CAVITE CLEARED OF INSURGENTS AND THE PEOPLE WIDLY WELCOME OUR FORCES.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—General Otis cabled today the following:

"MANILA, June 15.—Adjutant General, Washington: Success Lawton's troops Cavite province greater than reported yesterday: enemy numbering over 4,000; in killed and wounded and captured, more than one-third; remainder much scattered. Have retreated south to Imus, their arsenal. Of five pieces of artillery, three captured. Navy aided greatly on shore by, landing forces occasionally. Inhabitants in that country rejoice at deliverance, and welcome with enthusiastic demonstrations arrival of our troops. OTIS."

The War Department bulletins the following:

FRIENDLY FILIPINO ASSASSINATED

"MANILA, June 15.—Adjutant General, Washington: Prominent Filipino friendly to Americans assassinated at Cebu. Inhabitants of that locality urgently requested American protection in stronger force. Have sent battalion Tennessee and two guns from Iloilo, which insures peace. Hughes now in charge of affairs in that section. OTIS."

WILL AVENGE BROTHER'S DEATH.

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., June 15.—Among the men enlisted for service today was Daniel McTaggart, son of the late Senator Daniel McTaggart and brother of the late Lieutenant W. A. McTaggart of Company G of the Twentieth Kansas Regiment, who was killed a short time ago while on a charge near Calumpit. Young McTaggart will go to the Philippines to avenge his brother's death.

OTIS ORGANIZING REGIMENTS.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—Pursuing a policy determined upon some months ago, General Otis is organizing three regiments in the Philippines composed of officers and men of the State volunteers who desire to remain in the service. The army bill authorized this kind of enlistment in the Philippines. If the full complement cannot be made up from these discharged volunteers in the Philippines, the regiments will be organized and officered in skeleton form, until recruits can be sent from the United States to fill them. General Otis and the volunteer officers in the Philippines have been consulting to see how many men will enlist. The number has not been very large, as there seems to be a desire on the part of the volunteers to return to the United States with their organizations. These three proposed regiments, with three regiments of regulars to sail from San Francisco on the 22d and 24th, and those under orders from Manila, will give General Otis 20,000 fighting men.

It is stated positively at the War Department that the report that it was intended to reduce the cavalry troops and artillery batteries in this country to nine-twelve men each, is absolutely without foundation. The approved plan for the reinforcement of the army operating in the Philippines is briefly stated by a high official of the War Department as follows:

GEN OTIS' NEW TROOPS.

The increase of the size of the companies with General Otis to 128 men to the company was made from 3,100 men, heretofore the Hospital Corps, which the Controller had decided may be enlisted over and above the 65,000 men provided by law. In addition the Twenty-fourth and the Twenty-fifth regiments of infantry have been ordered to Manila and General Otis has been ordered to organize three skeleton volunteer regiments in Manila, officered from volunteers in the Philippines for the regular army. General Otis has informed the department that he can organize these regiments. It is proposed to send him recruits from here to fill them to their maximum limit. The arrangements referred to will give General Otis a fighting force of over 33,000 men of the line. These plans have been approved by the President, and will be put into execution with the least possible delay.

According to native stories, the rebels carried 100 dead and 300 wounded through Bakoor of the recent battle. The natives are now fleeing into Bakoor, and it is probable that there are many soldiers in plain clothes among them.

OTIS FEEDS THE NATIVES.

The whole section is practically without food, and Major-General Otis has ordered the distribution of rice and beef to the inhabitants. Many people still refuse to credit the stories of the assassination of General Luna by the guard at Aguinaldo's headquarters, though the reports to the effect are most circumstancial and from good sources, and rumors of assassinations and disasters from the rebel camp are so frequently printed in the local papers that they have come to be regarded with indifference. The latest is that the Governor of Cebu has been killed by natives because of his friendship to Americans.

SAYS GEN. LUNA IS ALIVE.

A prominent commercial man, with exceptional means of learning of the Filipinos' movements, claims to know General Luna is still alive, adding that if he is dead and if his death occurred a month ago people would have expected a collapse of the revolution to follow.

The failure of the Filipinos to follow up the peace negotiations strengthen the supposition that their overtures were merely to gain time and in order to lure the Americans to show their hands.

GEN. LUNA'S WILD TALK.

The Independencia, a revolutionary organ, of May 20th, a copy of which has just been received, prints an interview with General Luna, showing the arguments he used to keep up the spirits of his followers.

He presents the Filipinos cause as prospering, "because the Americans have gained only a hundredth part of Luzon by hard fighting, and says the women and children tilling the fields within the American lines give the proceeds of their work in support of the Filipino army." He is said to have further remarked: "More Americans will be killed by ambuscades, surprises and disease than in battles.

"I detest war, but we cannot accept peace at any price but independence. The Americans suffered for their own independence, and in their own hearts they appreciate why we resist them."

REBELS ARE RETREATING.

MANILA, June 15, 5:50 P. M.—Captain Cable of General Wheaton's staff, with three companies of the Twenty-first regiment, reconnoitered in the direction of Imus. The rebels, who were apparently expecting an attack, retired, leaving behind them twenty Spanish prisoners, who joined the Americans. The rebels have probably gone to the mountains along the lake.

Hon. Richard P. Bland Dies Early This Morning.

Never Recovered From a Severe Attack of La Grippe.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

ST. LOUIS, June 15.—A special to the Post-Dispatch from Lebanon, Mo., says:

Hon. Richard Parks Bland died at his home near Lebanon at 4:30 o'clock A. M., peacefully and without apparent suffering.

Mr. Bland returned home when Congress adjourned in March, and soon suffered a relapse from an attack of la grippe. For more than two months he has been confined to his home, and his health gradually declined. He thought he would not survive from the first, and showed his thorough understanding of his condition. On the third of this month Mr. Bland suddenly grew worse, and his sons, who were in school, were summoned home, and for the first time the public was informed of his critical condition.

From time to time since then the patient showed signs of improvement but the physicians in charge would offer very little hope to his family and friends. He continued to lose his vigor and grew weaker. On Sunday and Monday he presented an improved condition, and his family took new hope, and late Monday afternoon there were many expressions that Bland was getting better. About 10 o'clock Tuesday night, however, he fell asleep and continued in that condition until death relieved him today.

His family is prostrated with grief. All the community is bereaved. The funeral will take place at Lebanon at 4 o'clock on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Bland's remains will be placed in the Opera House tomorrow and will lie in state for twenty-four hours. The funeral will be conducted by the Masonic order, and all the ministers of Lebanon will be present to assist.

Private Secretary Bell has notified the Clerk of the House of Mr. Bland's death, requesting him to appoint a committee of members to attend the funeral. Prominent friends of Mr. Bland throughout the country have been notified of the funeral arrangements.

SHE IS SEEKING HER HUSBAND'S ASSASSIN

Unhappy Widow of Editor Deshayes Asks the Police to Help Her Dig in Garden for the Corpse.

The aftermath of a mystery which has for ten years shrouded the disappearance of Editor Deshayes of San Francisco was recalled this morning by another attempt on the part of his wife to ascertain, through the police of this city, whether her husband is dead or alive, and, if dead, when and how his taking off was accomplished.

This move on Mrs. Deshayes' part was made in writing a letter in French to Chief Fletcher, of which the following is a free translation:

STORY IN THE LETTER.

"San Francisco, June 11, 1899.

"Chief of Police, Oakland—I have been wishing to see you for a long time, as I desire to get a little information from you.

"My husband disappeared mysteriously on July 9, 1889. He visited the house occupied by a man at 2102 Elm street, Oakland. SINCE THAT TIME I HAVE NEVER CEASED TO SEARCH FOR HIM, AND TODAY I AM SATISFIED THAT HE IS DEAD. Probably assassinated.

"I want to know whether, after what I have told you, I may be permitted to search the garden at the Elm street house again. I WANT TO KNOW WHETHER I CAN RETURN TO SEARCH A PLACE IN THE GARDEN, and how long one may do that should the property have changed hands since the disappearance took place.

I CAN'T WRITE ALL THAT I HAVE DISCOVERED. It would take too long. To write it would be to write a volume, but I would do it if I had to do it. IF I CANNOT GET SATISFACTION FROM THE AUTHORITIES I WILL BE COMPELLED TO TAKE JUSTICE INTO MY OWN HANDS, because I have suffered so much in the ten years that I have been making this search for my husband.

"Furthermore, I am satisfied that certain people know where my husband is, dead or alive. They know it. If I can't get any justice from the Oakland courts I will write a book about this crime and tell all I know and all my detective published in the Metropolitan Magazine in October, 1896, under the name of 'La Parfait.' Besides, I will feel obliged to take justice in my own hands if justice in California is only for money or those who have influence.

"But I hope that the Oakland police are not like those of San Francisco, which exerts themselves only when money is offered.

"I KNOW THIS IS RATHER LATE TO START IN ON THIS BUSINESS, AFTER TEN YEARS, but I wanted to take sufficient time so that I might make no mistake and accuse an innocent person.

"I am sure my husband was assassinated.

"Please be so kind as to give me an answer, as also as to what day and hour I may go to see you. Kindly accept my greeting,

"M. DSEHAYES,
"724 Vallejo street, San Francisco."

THE STORY.

The story of Deshayes' disappearance was the sensation of the time in this city and San Francisco ten years ago. Deshayes was editor of a French weekly paper styled "Le Bayard." It was a bitterly personal organ. It assailed a number of people in the French colony of San Francisco and, as a consequence, several physical assaults were made upon the editor of the sheet. He was several times shot at, but the bullets went wide of their mark.

Deshayes was accused of libel and even indicted for it, but he always managed to escape Jail.

HE DISAPPEARED.

At a time when feeling was running high against him in the French colony on the other side of the bay and when his life was threatened by various people, Deshayes disappeared. No clew was ever found to his whereabouts. His wife traveled all over the world in futile attempts to locate him. She resolutely declared, however, that, when last seen, he was at the home of L. Villegia, 2102 Elm street in this city.

That story she has in effect reiterated a number of times since and repeats it in the letter published above. At the time of the disappearance of Deshayes, in 1889, the Oakland Directory of that year shows that Leon Villegia was living at the number on Elm street given above. The directory of the present year shows that there is a Leon Villegia now living at 2140 Elm street.

Detective Quigley has been looking into the matter. The chief has ordered a letter to be sent to Mrs. Deshayes asking her to call upon him and explain to him her case in English.

FRENCH CONSUL.

M. A. de Trobriand the French Consul at San Francisco now lives in the house at 2102 Elm street. To a Tribune reporter he said:

"I know Mrs. Deshayes. She has been to see me at my office in San Francisco. She remained there for nearly two hours giving me a detailed account of the disappearance and alleged assassination of her husband. I have been in this country for a short time only, but I have heard great deal of this woman. She asked me if I would allow her to make a search of the premises and I told her she was at liberty to do so. She came here one night late and wanted to search then, but I could not allow it because of the time of the night and because I had an engagement to keep. She has not been here since, but she may come at any time. She is not an educated woman. She told me that she had been married in Brazil before she came here. She has threatened the life of the man she suspects of her husband's murder. I believe he knows of her suspicions, but I think it my duty now to inform him of her threats. I have asked countrymen of mine if they consider Mrs. Deshayes insane and they say that she is not crazy. They say she is very sensible, because, a short time before her husband disappeared, he took out a heavy policy in an insurance company on his life.

THE INSURANCE.

"People I have spoken to on the subject say that she wishes to find that her husband was assassinated so she may be able to collect on his life insurance policy.

"If I had been in San Francisco at the time Deshayes was assailing people, I would have stopped it. I would have telegraphed to France and ascertained what his record had been over there."

MEETING OF THE VENEZUELA ARBITRATORS.

Eminent Jurists Who Will Settle the Dispute.

French Foreign Minister Makes the Welcoming Speech.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PARIS, June 15.—The first formal meeting of the Venezuela Arbitration Commission opened this morning. The arbitrators, counsel and others began assembling at the Foreign Office shortly before 11 o'clock. They were received by the Minister of Foreign Affairs, M. Delcasse, in the apartment in which the tribunal will sit. These are the rooms used at the meeting of the Spanish-American peace conference and during the Bering Sea arbitration.

On a raised dais at the end of the room facing the entrance are five massive gilt arm chairs for the arbitrators, with a table in front of them. Below the dais are half a dozen long tables placed cross the room for counsel and the clerical staff. A large colored map of the disputed territory hangs on the wall to the right of the arbitrators, with a smaller map of the whole of South America beside it. Altogether there are about forty persons connected with the tribunal present. The arbitrators and most of their staffs were dressed in frock coats.

There were less than a dozen spectators in that portion of the apartment roped off for the general public, and half a dozen ladies, including Mrs. Benjamin Harrison and others belonging to the American party.

The arbitrators took their seats soon after 11 o'clock, Chief Justice Melville E. Fuller and Richard Henn Collins, Lord Justice of Appeals, sitting at the right of Professor De Martens, the umpire, and Baron Russell of Killowara, Lord Chief Justice of England, and Justice David Brewer sitting at his left hand.

The Foreign Minister said it gave him special pleasure to welcome the high commission in behalf of the French Republic, which, he added, was greatly pleased at the fact that Paris had been chosen for the sitting of the tribunal, among whom he saw such eminent men, some of whom had occupied with distinction the highest positions. Under the presidency of M. De Martens, who was universally acknowledged as an authority on international law, he continued, the labors could only result happily in the interests of the dispute and in the interest of humanity, for it would constitute another step towards the realization of the noble project which, launched from an illustrious source, was making rapid way into the hearts and consciences of the people and had thus imposed itself with singular force on the solitude of those who govern them.

M. Delcasse concluded with thanking the arbitrators for having accepted the hospitality of France.

INNOCENCE OF CHIEF DEVERY.

Does Not know That Any One Paid to See That Big Fight.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, June 15.—Chief of Police Devery was cateschised before the Mazet Committee as to what he knew about boxing matches as they are conducted in New York. Devery said he had attended a number of performances but had seen no violation of the law. He did not know, he said, that money was charged for admission to the Jeffries-Fitzsimmon exhibition. He did not see any money pass for tickets of admission.

(Under the Horton law boxing exhibitions may be given only before club members, the contestants being also members, and no fee may be charged.)

He explained the difference between Marquis of Queensbury and London prize ring rules. He would interfere in a fight under the London prize ring rules, but there was, he said, no brutality in bouts according to the Marquis of Queensbury rules. He had wanted to prevent the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons bout, but deferred to the wishes of the people who took the opposite view.

THE COLORED PEOPLE ENJOY AN OUTING.

The members of the African Methodist Church gave a picnic today, at Haywards canyon.

A special train of three cars with vestibule car attached met the 9:37 train from the pier and conveyed the merry makers who had collected at Seventh and Washington streets to their destination.

A number of visitors from San Francisco came over to take advantage of the day's outing.

The attendance was large, and an enjoyable day was spent roaming about. The usual games were also indulged in. A musical program was one of the features of the occasion.

A FIEND UNDER GUARD.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., June 15.—Last midnight an armed guard arrived from Columbia City, bringing Helms, the alleged criminal assailant, who came so near being lynched at Auburn the previous night. The man was taken to the County Jail and a special guard provided.

The officers state that the mob at Garrett, where the alleged assault was committed, has scouts in this city. One of the girls alleged to have been assaulted died before the mob was formed. The second one is in a precarious condition at Garrett.

COMBINE OF THE FRUIT CANNERS.

Firms Interested Are Not Giving Out Any Information.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SAN JOSE, June 15.—Efforts have been made to secure some confirmation among local fruit canners of the statement from San Francisco that the canneries of the State are being organized into a big combine. All the canners seen acknowledge that they have heard of such a move, but beyond that not much information is given out. The manager of the San Jose cannery said he had no public statement to make. Manager Graham of the J. H. Flickinger cannery said he knew nothing more of the reported pool than what he had seen in the papers.

"If there is a pool," he added, "the Flickinger cannery does not belong to it. I was asked when the matter was being agitated, and what the result is I do not know."

Colonel T. R. Weaver, who is prominently identified with fruit interests, stated that when the effort was first made to form a pool it failed, because a sufficient number of canneries did not join. He did not think it had since been successful, though he said he had no positive knowledge on the subject.

MIAMI'S GREAT JUBILEE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

OXFORD, Ohio, June 15.—The culmination of the Diamond Anniversary Jubilee of Miami University occurred today, when a class of sixteen men was graduated and the Hon. Whitelaw Reid of the class of 1858 delivered the commencement address upon "Our New Duties." This event marked an era in this famous institution. Its growth recently has been phenomenal. The grounds and buildings and equipment have been improved, over $100,000 being spent within three years. The sons of Miami congregated to do honor to the new Miami today, and never in its history has there been such a large percentage of its graduates present as upon this occasion.

THE CURRY WILL BROKEN.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

SUISUN, June 15.—The late Montgomery S. Curry, who died in San Francisco in January, 1898, left a will which was as follows:

"I will my property, real and personal, to R. J. Curry, in trust for Julia A. Curry."

Miss Curry is ten years old, a daughter of the deceased. The estate was appraised at $100,000. The widow, Louise Curry, some time ago petitioned the Superior Court here for a distribution of the estate, asking for her rights as widow and heir-at-law. Judge Buckles has rendered a decision, declaring the trust endeavored to be created in the will void. An order was made allowing a partial distribution to the widow.

BALLOTING FOR THE JUDGESHIP.

The Prize That Lures the Pennsylvania Democrats.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

HARRISBURG, Pa., June 15.—Judges Yerkes of Buck and Kennedy of Allegheny were the favorites in the contest for Supreme Court Judge when the State Democratic Convention re-assembled at 10 o'clock today. Judge Kennedy was the leader at the final ballot taken last night, and the Buck county Judge was second. The convention balloted last night until 12:15 without making a nomination, eleven ballots being taken. After the Supreme judgeship nomination has been made, not much time will be consumed in making nominations for State Treasurer and Judge of the Superior Court.

Judge Mestezet seems to be slowly rallying the western delegates to his standard, but his managers have not been able to break into the Allegheny delegation, which cast its thirty votes on every ballot for Judge Kennedy of Pittsburg.

The eighteenth ballot: Albright 16, Allen 31, Bechtel 15, Ermentrout 61, Kennedy 44, Krebes 6, Lynch 20, Mestezet 47, Smith 40, Wolverton 15, Yerkes 81, Pattison 5.

The total liabilities given to the public at the last statement were $25,554. The assets were $114,469. The president of the bank is J. D. Mauben. He is expected to arrive tomorrow. The bank was incorporated August 11, 1890.

CALAMITY TO COLORADO.

Smelters Closing Down Paralyze State's Industries.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

DENVER, Colo., June 15.—Thirty thousand men in Colorado will be out of work within the next thirty days unless steps are taken to end the strike of the smelter employes. The Omaha and Grant and the Globe in Denver, the Bimetallic and the Arkansas Valley at Leadville, the Ellers and the Colorado smelters at Pueblo are closed. The Argo smelter in Denver has complied with the eight-hour law and is still running. The Guggenheim smelter at Pueblo also is running.

The closed works are under guard, but nowhere have the men made any demonstration. At Central City the men employed in the stamp mills are expected to strike today.

These mines have already closed: The Commodore, Amethyst, Bachelor, Bachelor No. 2 and Last Chance mines, in the Creede district; the Calliope and Hagerty at Ouray; the Caribbean and Montezuma, near Ophir; the Iron Mask and Black Iron at Redcliff, and the Smuggler at Aspen.

The Porter Fuel Company at Durango has closed, throwing 150 men out of work.

COMMISSION ORGANIZES.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

WASHINGTON, June 15.—The members of the Commission appointed by the President to examine into the question of the most feasible route for a canal across the Isthmus of Panama met this morning in the Corcoran building. The only absentee was Ex-Senator Pasco of Florida. Admiral Walker was elected president, after which the Commissioners called upon the President in a body to pay their respects. Later they went to the State Department and called upon Secretary Hay, with whom they discussed some of the details of the plans of work before them.

WILL SETTLE DREYFUS CASE.

France's New Cabinet to Make That Its Main Plank.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

PARIS, June 15.—M. Poincare informed President Loubet this morning that he would accept the task of forming a Cabinet. He will take the war portfolio, in addition to the presidency of the Council.

M. Meline, in an interview with M. Poincare, strongly urged the latter to form a Cabinet, whose main plank will be the settlement of the Dreyfus affair.

It is now believed a majority of the members of the Chamber of Deputies, including many Socialists, will be contented with an order of the day censuring General Mercier, the former Minister of War, for the part he has taken in the Dreyfus case, instead of his prosecution. If this should be done it would remove one of the most serious causes of friction between the factions.

NEW FREIGHT COMMITTEE.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 15.—At a meeting of the executive officers of the southwestern lines it has been determined to take steps for the dissolution of the Southwestern Bureau. Previous to this meeting the Executive Board had decided to abolish the Conference Committee on and after September 1st, and the attitude of the Southern Pacific, in sending a notice of withdrawal and demanding the return of its deposit, now leads to the dissolution of the bureau.

Will Ignore a Award.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

LOS ANGELES, June 15.—The Los Angeles City Water Works today made an answer to the request of the city for an indication of the action the company would take in regard to the award of the board of arbitrators appointed to settle the dispute between the city and the company regarding the transfer of the water plant. The company's says in effect that it will ignore the award made by the arbitrators. It contends that the award was made by only two of the three members of the board and is therefore not binding.

HEAVY PENALTY ON DELINQUENT TAXES.

If the residents of the annexed district who are delinquent in their city taxes for last year are wise they will pay the delinquency immediately, even if they have to borrow the money with which to pay it.

On the delinquency up to the present time there is a penalty of 20 per cent. On that same delinquency, after the 2d of next July the penalty will be 30 per cent.

Many taxpayers of that district refused to pay their taxes because they did not believe the Supreme Court would sustain the annexation proceedings. Now that the annexation has been sustained by the Supreme Court, the taxes must be paid with the imposed delinquency.

THE DEFICIT IS DOWN TO $5,000.

City Auditor Breed has just made another examination of the probable resources of this city for the remainder of this year and has again come to the conclusion that there will be a deficit of $5,000. In making this calculation, Mr. Breed has counted as part, delinquent taxes, some of which, of course, will not be paid. He argues that if no warrants are now outstanding against these delinquent taxes the Council may allow him to draw warrants against a small amount of them at least.

were present, including a number of ladies in rich toilettes.

The presiding Judge, in the course of his address, recalled the fact that the Comte De Dion, one of the prisoners, was mixed up in a similar affair in 1891. After asking the accused persons to reply, the Judge turned towards the Comte De Dion, who, he said, took the principal part in the affair. The Comte, replying, affirmed that he was not a Royalist, but a Republican, adding that, however, he desired "another kind of a republic."

He added that he had no idea of going to Auteuil with the object of engaging in a demonstration, but claimed he had the privilege, like any other French citizen of cheering for the army. He denied having struck Police Director Touny, and asserted that he had taken lessons in fencing, boxing, and kicking, and that if he had struck any one, the person struck would not have been capable of coming to court and defying him today.

MILLER SURPRISED AT THE MAYOR'S STAND.

M. K. Miller Superintendent of Streets, declined to be interviewed this morning as to how he construed the action of the Board of Public Works in deciding to re-appoint him to his present position.

"That would be," he said, "a delicate question for one in my position to discuss. I will simply say that I am surprised at the turn things have taken. I had a short talk some time ago with Mayor Snow on the subject, but he gave no indication as to how he felt about the matter."

CARING FOR GRIMM CHILDREN.

An effort is being made by the Eureka Society for the Protection of Children to save something of the estate of Mrs. Mamie Grimm and place her children under the care of a guardian, who will give them the attention which has been denied them by their dissolute mother. The society has made application to be appointed guardian of the young folks and the mother herself has been placed in the County Jail on the charge of failing to provide for her children. Her absence from her home last Monday night was occasioned by her arrest in Oakland. She had been on a drunken spree and was locked up in the city jail across the estuary. The man, Meisanes, who has disgraced himself and scandalized his father, the aged superintendent of St. Mary's Cemetery in Oakland, was put in jail with her at the same time, both being drunk.

She was then jerked off the platform and fell to the street with her grandchild in her arms, narrowly missing the wheels. She lay there until the train had passed. She was later taken to Dr. Lebrook's, where it was found that she had sustained several bad bruises.

The officers shall be a foreman and assistant foreman and their election must be confirmed by the trustees. Bob Moses who had the affair in charge attended to his arduous duties in fine style and kept the riders in their proper places, a thing hard to do. A series of races were pulled off the following being the winners in the several events:

One-third mile—First heat, first, Bush; second, King; time, .47; second heat, first, Nesmith; second, Carter; time, .47½; third heat, first, Emery; second, Peterson; time, .48½; final, first, Nesmith; second, Carter; time, .50.

Two-third Mile—First heat, first, Bush; second, Emery; time, 1:40½; second heat, first, Nesmith; second, King; time, 1:39; third heat, first Carter; second, Peterson; time, 1:43; final heat, first, Emery; second, Nesmith; time, 1:30½.

One mile—First heat, first, Nesmith, second, Marshall; time, 2:45; second heat, first, Olney; second, King; time, 2:46; third heat, first, Emery; second, Peterson; time, 2:35; final heat, first, Emery; second, Nesmith; time, 2:36.

One Mile Juvenile Handicap—First, Richmond; second, "Ziegler;" time, 2:41.

Umbrellit Race—First, Emery; second, Moses; time, —.

One Mile Juvenile Handicap—First, Richmond; second, Duarte; time, 2:41.

Mile Handicap—First heat, first, Bush; second, Kelley; time, 2:33; second heat, first, Graesslin; second, Emery; time, 2:25; final heat, first, Champion; second, Bush; time, 2:30.

The final of the one-third mile race proved very exciting. Nesmith, Carter, Bush, and Emery being bunched when coming down the stretch. They crossed the tape in the above order, Carter beating Bush by about six inches. The riders pocketed Bush at the half-mile post, and he was unable to get through.

The disasters of the day occurred in the first heat of the one-mile race. Bush when opposite the shooting stand went down and Frank Ramsell who was closely following him, went over him, taking a header for several feet landing against the High School fence. Bush had his right shoulder badly bruised and one wheel of his bike smashed. Ramsell was badly skinned up, and retired for repairs.

The umbrella race proved very laughable owing to the riding of Moses, who cut up all kinds of antics. Every umbrella in the race was a complete wreck at the finish.—Irvington Press.

THURSDAY..... JUNE 15, 1899.

Somebody must have been "raising the wind" along the Mississippi valley and up around Billy Bryan's home in Nebraska.

Two persons in New York have committed suicide to avoid the heat. They must feel very confident about their destination in the other world.

General Otis is conferring a "signal" service upon California in permitting that corps of our National Guardsmen to leave Manila for home without any further delays.

A Chicago undertaker has been fined $200 for fast driving, the offense consisting of racing with a hearse on his way home from a funeral. The contest doubtless resulted in a dead heat.

Pity they didn't think of inviting old Oom Paul to attend the peace conference at The Hague. It might have had the effect of preventing him from going around with that chip on his shoulder and inviting John Bull to knock it off.

If we are going to walk until we have a consolidated city and county government before we get a new City Hall we may as well make up our minds to jog along as we are for several years. It is absurd to make a definite proposition depend upon an indefinite one, especially in a case of urgent necessity such as this is.

Spain has sold out about all the jobs of islands at her disposal, and unless she puts herself on the block next there will be an end to that way of filling her empty treasury. The sale of her remaining islands in the Pacific for $5,000,000 cleans up everything in that part of the world and attracts attention to the Canaries as being the next possibility on the list.

The Washington Post gives a hard setback to the talk that has been going the rounds to the effect that Hanna intends to retire from the chairmanship of the Republican National Committee. "It is known," it says, "that Mr. Hanna has not intimated to the White House any intention of retiring at this time, and no such move is known of by the members of the National Committee, who are now in the city."

They seem to be working in the dark at the Home for the Adult Blind. Just who will pay the bills contracted by the old Board does not seem very clear just now, but they certainly should not be repudiated. Those who furnished the institution with supplies for which they are now presenting their claims did so in good faith, and it would be a hardship upon them to compel them to take their bills before the State Legislature and make a fight at Sacramento ere they can get their money.

HEALTHY COMPETITION.

Although the original plans and arrangements called for the opening up of the Santa Fe competing line during July, it had now become evident that it will be impossible to get the tracks laid and in working condition for many months yet, and the first of the coming year will probably have rolled around ere the devoutly-wished-for consummation is attained.

Those who are figuring that the competition of the Santa Fe will mean a cutting and slashing of rates may as well disabuse their minds of that idea at once, for it is well known that the line will pool issues with the Southern Pacific as far as charges are concerned. Where the competition will come in, though, and it will be very keen, will be in the bidding for business, and the benefits that will redound to the public will be those of increased accommodations and better service. Indications of this are already apparent in the manner in which the Southern Pacific is remodeling its passenger department, while the hurried closing of the gap on the coast line shows that it intends to lead its new rival a merry dance. The competition that is coming is, therefore, that of the healthiest kind, for the public never gains anything on a rate-cutting proposition, as sooner or later the rival lines reach an amicable agreement, and then the public quickly has to pay back all it gained during the times of hostility. A competition, though, as to service and accommodations is enduring and as that is the sort to be inaugurated here, we can afford to look forward complacently to the advent of our competing line.

THE COMING CONGRESS.

Positive denials are now being made of the stories that despite Reed's retirement from the speakership he intends to retain his seat as a member of Congress, and although he has not personally voiced his intentions in the matter, the fact that his private secretary, Allen, has declared himself a candidate for the vacancy should be assurance enough that Reed's withdrawal is complete.

It would be an incongruity, anyhow, to imagine Reed a member of Congress and not in the Speaker's chair, when it could be his, without even the asking. Outside of the case of the President himself, it is doubtful if as much power is vested in any one man as is conferred upon the Speaker of the House, for under the rules he is in possession of enough authority to advance or block any particular legislation in which he may be interested. It was Reed's personal opposition to the annexation of Hawaii that delayed that project until at last public clamor forced it upon Congress, and his antagonism to the Nicaragua canal has had much to do with the sidetracking to which that enterprise has been subjected. As regards minor legislative matters, such as public building bills and so forth, the Speaker may be said to be in absolute control of the situation, as Oakland knew to her sorrow until last session, when Reed allowed our local measure to be taken up and passed.

General Henderson, who will succeed Reed, bears the reputation of being a liberal-minded, clear-headed man, and it does not look as if Republican interests will suffer in his hands. He is already being besieged by applicants who hope that he will entirely remodel the committee system established by Reed, but those on the inside are inclined to think that he will be very conservative in that regard. The chairmanship of the Committee on Territories is attracting much attention now, as that is the committee to which has been referred all questions relating to the government of our new possessions. The impression prevails that Hitt will be transferred there from the Foreign Affairs Committee, and that Knox of Massachusetts will be at the head of the Committee on Banking and Currency. Payne is said to be slated for the Ways and Means Committee, while Cannon will be in charge of the appropriations, as of yore.

The carpenters of Oakland are about to form a new union. If they can get plenty of "joiners" they will be all right.

WOULD THE SON OF GOD PLEAD THE STATUTE OF LIMITATION?

THE DEFENSE OF THE REV. V. MARSHALL LAW.

Would the Son of God, if He came to Oakland, plead the statute of limitations?

A startling question! Certainly.

A flippant question! Not at all.

It is a question that is presented very seriously, and is forced upon the attention of this community by the position of a minister of the gospel with reference to a case in court.

The Rev. V. Marshall Law, rector of the Church of the Advent of East Oakland, has taken that position concerning a bill for $17.75, for which suit is brought against him. The case is to be tried in Judge Larue's court in East Oakland on June 19th.

The suit is brought by the Stewart Collection Agency on behalf of the Stationers' Board of Trade of New York City.

The suit is for tracts and Bibles, alleged to have been purchased by the clergyman more than two years ago.

If this minister of God has any other and better plea for not paying this bill, it is certainly profoundly to be regretted that he did not rest upon that, and resist the temptation to plead the statute of limitations.

The statute of limitations is in bad odor among right minded people when it is pleaded as a bar to the payment of an ordinary debt in trade.

This is certainly the first case in the history of Oakland, and probably the first case anywhere, where such a plea has been made to avoid the payment of a mercantile account incurred for Bibles and other religious literature used in a church.

This clergyman has received notice from the vestrymen of his church that his resignation will be expected before the expiration of the coming week. To that he replies that the vestrymen are not legally competent to take such action or to give such a notice. Perhaps he proposes to plead a sort of ecclesiastic statute of limitations with reference to his incumbency. He may consider it a vested right, and argue that possession is nine points of the law.

No, Marshall Law.

The technicalities of the law do not belong to the law of the kingdom of heaven.

The Son of God, if He came to Oakland, would not plead the statute of limitations.

When the undertaker had quenched his thirst he turned his attention to the lunch counter, filling a big plate with provisions. Uncle Sam's man in stentorian tones remarked to the barkeeper: "Why don't you give that man a dime and let him go to the Japanese restaurant and get a square meal?"

WOMEN WHO WORK

MISS M. G. HARRINGTON, CLERK--YOUR TURN NEXT.

Miss Martha G. Harrington of 613 Nineteenth street is employed in the veiling and fancy ribbon department of Taft & Pennoyer's store on Broadway and Fourteenth. She has held her present position about four years. Her excellent taste in regard to that class of goods particularly adapts her for the position. Miss Harrington thoroughly understands her work and is of invaluable aid in aiding the selection of a piece of goods by a customer. Her abilities have recommended her to the firm, and she is now considered one of the most efficient clerks in the store. Miss Harrington is very popular and well liked by the other employes of the firm.

BOY WHO BROUGHT BOTTLE OF WINE TO SCHOOL CAUSED TROUBLE.

TEACHER WHO SMOKED CIGARETTES--HOW THEY DO THINGS THINGS IN BERKELEY.

"Yes, I do smoke cigarettes; there is hardly a gentleman teacher in the Berkeley schools who doesn't smoke; but I never smoked cigarettes in Lorin and the charge that I did was trumped up for the purpose of getting me out of the school department."

Thus spoke Merton Congdon, ex-principal of the Lorin school, and who was charged with smoking cigarettes on the school grounds. He feels very angry over his treatment but can see no way to force reparation. He claims to be the victim of a plot in which a former school director is concerned.

"Ex-School Director Crew wanted to down me," said Mr. Congdon last evening, and now he has succeeded through his successor and friend, A. T. Sutherland. Shortly after Crew was elected two years ago he had the then janitress—a poor woman with a family to support—discharged and placed a pet of his named Donovan in the position. Donovan was so inefficient that I was compelled to report him and he was let out. This angered Crew and he has been my enemy ever since. I believe he exercised his influence with Director Sutherland, who failed to vote for me.

"About two weeks ago I was informed that a story was being circulated to the effect that I was in the habit of smoking cigarettes on the school grounds. I endeavored to trace it to the author, and now I believe it was instigated by a boy whom I had expelled for bringing a bottle of wine to school.

"At all events I do not believe that the director who charged me with smoking on the school grounds had any right to do so until the charges were verified.

"I am well aware of the fact that ex-School Superintendent Perham was opposed to me and recommended that my connection with the department be severed, but that was purely for political reasons.

"During the recent school election campaign I worked for J. R. Little, who was unfriendly to Perham. The latter wanted Professor Senger elected director. This caused Perham to fight me and others. Why, I have been told on the best authority that Perham had made out a list of the teachers he was going to have discharged in case he was re-elected Superintendent. My name headed the list. The others were S. D. Waterman, at that time principal of the High School, now Superintendent; M. G. James, now principal of the High School, and J. D. Warnick, principal of the San Pablo avenue school.

"However, I am out, and I suppose we may consider the episode at an end."

The affair has aroused a great deal of interest in Berkeley and it is expected that at the next meeting of the Board of Education it will be a topic of lively discussion.

Pretty Wedding at The Gorrill Home.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gorrill, 1231 Myrtle street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening, at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Grace Gorrill became the bride of Oscar Gowing.

The apartments of the home were beautifully decorated in pink and white, flowers of these colors being grouped in tasteful and effective profusion.

The bride appeared in a magnificent gown of cream white silk trimmed in dainty ruffles of chiffon and rich Duchesse lace. In her hands she carried a large bunch of lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaid, Miss Martha Alexander, was becomingly gowned in pink net over pink satin. She carried a handsome bunch of pink roses.

Charles Peck was best man.

The marriage service was performed by Rev. Dr. McLean of the Pacific Theological Seminary, who had also pronounced the same words years before when the bride's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Gorrill, were made man and wife.

After the ceremony a bridal dinner was served by Hallahan.

The bride's table was a charming picture in pink and white, fragrant with a pretty profusion of the bridal flower, orange blossoms. Seated at the table were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gowing, the bride and groom, Miss Martha Alexander, Charles Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Landborg, Miss Harriet Ridgedge, Miss Cora Swales, Miss Flora Gowing, Harry Farr, Dan Belden and Eugene Taurston.

The rooms were filled with relatives and friends of the young couple. The list of invited guests numbered about seventy-five.

After an extended bridal tour, Mr. and Mrs. Gowing will reside on Hillside avenue, Piedmont.

FOR POLICEMEN.

CHARLES HAMERTON, DETECTIVE--YOUR TURN NEXT.

Charles Hamerton, day jailor at the City Bastile, has been on the police force for a number of years, and yet he is among the younger and more efficient members. He has done duty on various beats in this city, but distinguished himself most in West Oakland at a time when it required a nervy man to curb the vaulting aspirations of the variously styled gangs of the place. Hamerton crushed the tendrest hopes of the gentlemen of the Fish and Sporting Life Gangs in a way that really shocked those would-be annihilators. Since then he has been accorded a degree of respect by them which is not unmixed with the wholesome element of fear. The officer now turns the keys on all the wags, inebriates and thieves who are taken to the City Jail during the day. It is an inactive position, but it has its responsibilities, and Mr. Hamerton discharges them well. He is now a candidate for detective, awaiting action of the Police and Fire Commissioners in the premises.

STREET CAR MEN.

W. H. HALL, EAST OAKLAND LINE--YOUR TURN NEXT.

W. H. Hall has been guiding the destinies of cars as motorman on the East Oakland road for the past six years. He is one of the oldest men in the employ of the company. He was with it when the management owed the men for months of time and effort, and is still with it now that the ghost walks with regularity. Mr. Hall is a great lover of dogs and guns, and the days on which he is not required to work generally find him where it is not against the law to indulge in sport. Mr. Hall has discovered what every motorman styles "the draught." When a car is going forward and the door behind the motorman is left open, the car acts like an immense syphon. A current of air is drawn through it, which strikes the motorman on the neck and gives him what is inelegantly styled "cold shivers," which are akin to the racing of globules of ice down one's spinal column. To escape these draughts the motorman tries to keep the door behind him closed. Perverse patrons, however, try to keep it open. When a motorman closes the door a passenger will most likely open it. If the motorman closes the door a second time, the passenger is likely to open it a second time and jam his foot across the threshold to keep it open. There is nothing then for the motorman to do but look angelic and shiver. Hall has done both. He is an adept in both, especially on draughts and shivers.

A Healthful Drink for Hot Weather.

This is the twenty-first season for that famous and healthful drink, Hires Rootbeer. The campaign has opened. The war against thirst is on, and of course Hires will reign supreme in an undisputed realm of its own. In all of these years it has stood proof against imitation and counterfeit, and now in its strength of full growth rises far above serious competition.

Summer and Hires Rootbeer are associated in our mind as things inseparable. We look forward to that as a summer beverage as we look for the rising of the sun. It has been of inestimable value to thousands of people, supplying them at once with a delicious, healthful and thirst-quenching drink, occupying the same place at the family table as tea or coffee.

Its growth has been rapid and remarkable, long since reaching proportions never dreamed of by its proprietors. One of its remarkable features is its trifling cost. One package may be converted into five gallons of this delicious, sparkling temperance drink, containing medicinal properties of well-known virtue.

WE, IN OAKLAND, ARE SORRY FOR THE FILIPINOS.

EDITORIAL ON THE STORY OF THE DAY IN OUR ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAPH.

War is dreadful at its best.

Painful is the news that comes today from the Philippines.

Our troops there have gained a signal victory.

The province of Cavite has been completely cleared of invading rebels, and the normal residents are returning to their home rejoicing.

But this victory has its costs.

Our own troops have escaped with merely nominal loss. The losses of the misguided Filipinos have been serious. Of a force of four thousand more than one-third have been either killed, wounded or taken captive.

Americans are generous enough to deplore the losses of their foes. They lament that such losses have been made necessary.

Yet it has become a question, and a very serious one, where the losses of this conflict shall be allowed to fall.

Is it better to have it so conducted that our own sons and relatives shall be sacrificed, or is it better to have it prosecuted with such energy and such expedition that the enemies of the Government shall be speedily brought into subjection to its rightful authority?

There can be but one answer to this question.

The quickest way is the most merciful. Shortest wars are the least destructive.

We, as generous Americans, are sorry for these unfortunate Filipinos. Therefore we welcome such an aspect of this war which they have precipitated upon themselves as promises its speedy termination.

DEATH CLAIMS CHAS. HADSELL.

He moved to New York while a child and in October of 1851 he came to California. He lived for a year in Tuolumne county and then located in this county, first finding employment at Beard's Landing. Later, he located in Santa Clara county and remained there until 1862, when he moved to Sunol, where he purchased a fine farm which he continued to cultivate up to the time of his death.

SET-BACK FOR KAISER.

Associated Press Dispatches by
The Tribune's Special Leased Wire.

BERLIN, June 15.—The lower house of the Prussian Diet today, by a vote of 240 to 180, referred back to the committee the Rhine and Elb canal bill, after the Imperial Chancellor, Prince Hohenlohe, had strongly urged its passage, saying the Prussian government regarded the construction of the canal as urgently necessary, both to promote industry and to increase the defensive power of the whole fatherland. Herr von Heirman then moved that the bill be re-referred to the committee which had previously rejected it, the government, he added, having promised compensating advantages to the portions of the country which would be prejudicially affected by the changes in the existing conditions which would naturally follow the construction of the canal.

Beware of Food Samples

Quite recently in New York two deaths occurred from poisoning by the use of powders sent to the victims by mail. In Leavenworth, Kansas, the other day nearly every doctor in town was called to attend the children who had gathered up, eaten, and been made ill by samples of an article left at houses by canvassers for advertising purposes.

Alum baking powders have always been favorite articles for this sampling business. Yet there is nothing more liable to lead to danger than the practice of using the various samples of baking powder left at the door. They are presented by irresponsible parties, in appearance are not distinguishable from arsenic, and indeed, in Indiana, some time since one package was found, after it had caused the death of the housewife, to have been mixed with that poison.

It is safer to refuse all samples of food or medicine offered at the door. Pure cream of tartar baking powders sell upon their merits, and are never peddler or sampled.

FORTUNE HE CANNOT USE.

Fred W. Mowry Will Never Enjoy His Inheritance.

Frederick W. Mowry was not able to leave the insane asylum at Napa to be present when the petition for letters of guardianship on himself and estate was to be heard.

Judge Greene, therefore, went to Napa yesterday and conducted the hearing. Frank Otis and Thomas C. Huxby were apointed guardians.

Mowry is heir to a $35,000 estate. He was committed to Napa about a month ago, his medical examination being conducted at the Mowry home in Alvarado. This was two days before the death of his mother, Delina Mowry.

She left an estate of about $40,000 to be divided equally among her four children.

Grape-Nuts

The Most Perfectly Made Food for Human Use.

TO KEEP FOOD CRISP

A novel way of opening a package of food is shown on the Grape-Nuts package, where a line indicates that a slit should be made with a knife, and the package squeezed, which makes it gap enough to pour out what is needed for a meal, then the package automatically closes, preserving the contents from the moisture of the air.

As a rule, Grape-Nuts packages are not kept on hand very long in any family, but it is well to know how to keep the contents of the package in prime condition. Grape-Nuts are ready cooked, very crisp, and can be served immediately with a little good cream or milk. This feature is of great advantage to those who appreciate ease and convenience in preparing breakfast. Price 15 cents per package.

HE TRIED TO MURDER J. S. DERBY.

Thos. Cunniff Goes Gunning With a Big Pistol.

Captured by the Police and Landed in Jail.

Thomas Cunniff is now considered by the police to be the man who has caused considerable annoyance to residents in East Oakland by appearing on their premises or in their homes unbidden and terrifying the inmates with actions like those of insane people. Last night he was arrested by Officers Mackey and Truman and confined in the city jail, charged with assault with a deadly weapon and using profane language. Cunniff went into the office of J. S. Derby in East Oakland. He drew a gun and threatened to kill Derby and ex-Mayor Blethen. Derby was one of the executors of the will of Cunniff's mother, who died some time ago. Cunniff claims that Derby and the other executors cheated him out of his share of that estate.

Cunniff was ejected from the office and later managed to get in the way of Officers Truman and Mackey, whom he also abused. He then endeavored to run away but was pursued and captured by the officers.

His escapades of late have caused him to be feared in his section of the city. It is considered likely that he will be arrested soon on a charge of insanity.

This morning Cunniff gave bail on the charge of assault with a dealy weapon. No complaint has yet been filed against him on the charge of exhibiting a deadly weapon.

Frank Cunniff, a brother of Thomas Cunniff, has just been discharged from the city jail for running away with a bicycle. His fine was paid by Thomas.

OFFICIALS VISIT THE ANNEXED DISTRICT.

Fire and Police Commissioner Clement and the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department made an examination of the annexed district today with respect to the necessity of fire hydrants. They drove from Villa Avenue to the Berkeley line on the west side of San Pablo avenue and from Stanyan street to the Berkeley line on the west of Lowe avenue. They ascertained that within this district there is a settlement of 249 houses, all of which at the present time are without protection against fire. They have not yet decided as to how many hydrants they will award to the district until after another investigation which will be made this afternoon.

Spitting Blood

"I used to cough a great deal and spit blood, and my neighbors in Dayton, Ohio, where I live, said among themselves that I had consumption, although they did not tell me so to my face, for fear of making me despondent. I kept on coughing and trying different sorts of medicines, but nothing seemed to reach my trouble until I got hold of a bottle of Acker's English Remedy. I prayed for health all the time, and my prayers were answered as soon as I began taking this celebrated English expectorant and tonic. Since my recovery I have told hundreds of sufferers from coughs, colds and weak lungs that Acker's English Remedy would cure them. Some of them won't try it, and it does seem to me terrible when anyone deliberately refuses to be cured. There ought to be a law compelling consumptives to take it. Even if they don't care for their own lives, the public's welfare should be considered. Don't you think so too? I hope such a law will soon be enforced."
(Signed) MRS. RICHARDSON.

Sold at 25c., 50c. and $1 a bottle, throughout the United States and Canada; and in England, at 1s. 2d., 2s. 6d., 4s. 6d. If you are not satisfied after buying, return the bottle to your druggist and get your money back.

OSGOOD BROS., Seventh and Broadway

All-England opened at Lord's grounds today with magnificent weather. There were about 25,000 people present.

Tickets have been much sought after, the price of seats ranging from $10 downward. There was the usual display of drags, carriages and brilliant toilettes.

The England team won the toss and went to the wickets. The batters found the wicket was uncomfortably fast, and the players were put out rapidly.

The home team was all out in its first inning for 206 runs.

St. Paul and Women's Hats

A movement is reported among the Methodists to induce the women of their congregations to remove their hats in church: or, failing that, to reduce their size. A writer in the Open Court (Chicago), taking this as a text, discourses learnedly on the injunctions of St. Paul on the subject and the probable reasons for his views. The writer (presumably Dr. Paul Carus) accounts for the origin of the custom of wearing hats in church as follows:

"Up to the present day men take off their hats as soon as they enter church, while women do not think of removing them. This latter custom, far from being the outgrowth of female vanity and the desire to publicly display their good or bad taste in selecting fashionable head-gear, has been introduced by the Apostle Paul, and proves how conservative the gentler sex is in matters of religion. But the Apostle's influence in this respect is by no means confined to the churches; it rules supreme even in such places of worldly pleasure as the theatre and concert hall. Every one knows that the theatre of the ancient Greeks was a religious institution; theatrical performances with them were religious services of the highest importance. * * *

"When, by and by, the theatre became emancipated from the control of the church, that custom had become so firmly established that it was a matter of course for women not to be seen in public places unless with covered heads. The origin of that custom had long been forgotten; nobody cared to learn its real meaning; everybody was convinced that it was the only proper thing for decent women to do; and women themselves would have been ready to fight for what they believed to be their privilege. And this position our women can hardly be said to have abandoned. That is, in short, the historical evolution of the 'theatre hat,' and I hope to have been successful in proving that the Apostle Paul is its father, in so far at least as he induced all Gentile Christians to conform with an old religious observance of the Greeks and Romans."

Among the Jews, men as well as women we are told further, had to cover their heads while praying, a custom still observed in all Orthodox synagogues. Among the Greeks and Romans, however, men prayed with bare heads, while women had to be veiled. The writer continues:

"Many people will, as I believe, find it somewhat queer that the Apostle should have occupied himself seriously with such a question, and especially that he should have made so great a distinction between man and woman. The more carefully will we have to consider his reasons. These, as furnished by himself, are three in number. The Apostle, in the first place, states that it is not 'comely that a woman should pray unto God uncovered.' According to him, such a woman should also be 'shorn or shaven.' The long hair given her indicates that she must cover her head while attending church. The second consists in woman's natural inferiority. The Apostle says: 'The man is the image and the glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman, but the woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man.' Such inferiority demands an outward token, and, in order to furnish that, the Apostle decreed that women should keep their heads covered at church. The third reason is found at verse 10: 'The woman ought to have a power on her head because of the angels.' The expression 'because of the angels' has to be explained more fully.

"It refers to an old Jewish myth or superstition which, as is shown by our present passage, was shared by the Apostle Paul. In the first verse of Gen. vi. the following remark occurs: 'It came to pass when men began to multiply on the face of the earth, and daughters were born unto them, that the sons of God saw the daughters of men that they were fair, and they took them wives of all which they choose.' 'There were giants in the earth in those days, and also after that when the sons of God came in unto the daughters of men, and they bare children to them, the same became mighty men which were of old men of renown.' 'God saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was evil continually.' We further are informed that this experience induced God to destroy the inhabitants of the earth by the great flood. On these short and unconnected remarks, in later times, the story of the fallen angels was built up. Angels became enamored of mortal women, begot the giants, and introduced all kinds of wickedness and evil among the dwellers of the earth. God was finally compelled to punish those angels by imprisoning them in a deep, dark hole in the desert of Dugael, and the mortal sinners by drowning them in the deluge.

"The Apostle evidently believed that women, by covering their heads when appearing before God, would avoid the danger of tempting the angels."

CONTEST OVER SMALL ESTATE.

Battle Over the Estate of Woman Who Is in Asylum.

Attorney Snook appeared before Judge Ellsworth yesterday to contest the granting of letters of guardianship of Johanna O'Connell, who was committed to Napa insane Asylum a few weeks ago.

It appears that Mrs. O'Connell deeded some of her property to her niece, Miss Lulu Barry, a few days before she was sent to the asylum.

The husband, William O'Connell, then asked to be appointed guardian of his wife and her estate and to have the deed invalidated on account of his wife's mental condition.

The question as to whether the woman was incompetent or not occupied the attention of the Court this morning.

Attorney Snook contended that the adjudication of the court in committing the patient was not proof of her incompetency.

Attorney Harris, appearing for Attorney A. L. Frick, wished to show by an affidavit from the attending physician at the asylum that Mrs. O'Connell was insane.

Deputy Sheriff Striker was also called to testify as to the taking of Mrs. O'Connell to the asylum.

Miss L. Barry testified that she had recently visited her aunt in the asylum and that she was of sound mind.

William O'Connell testified that he had recently visited his wife and had found her the same as when she was committed to the asylum. The matter was continued to next Monday.

Help the Needy and Honor the Poet of the Heights.

The home of Joaquin Miller on "The Heights" is one of the show places of Oakland, and yet comparatively few people know anything about the home and surroundings of the Poet of the Sierras. In a recent article in The Coming Age of Boston, which gives an interesting account of Mr. Miller, appeared the following statement:

"In 1887 Mr. Miller secured a tract of land on Oakland Heights, overlooking San Francisco and the Golden Gate. Here he set to work planting an orange grove and making a garden of roses. Several little unpretentious cabins jewel this garden spot. In one lives the poet's mother, now in her eighties; one of his brothers occupies another; and the foreman of his grove a third.

"Oh, we have a little village up there," exclaimed the poet, "and every cabin is hung with roses. My mother works in the garden every day, and," he continued, "we have a sort of religion up there. A part of it is to go to bed with the sun and get up with the sun. I don't believe in this nonsense about the midnight oil. I believe night was given man for sleep."

When all the world was thrown into excitement over the gold brought to San Francisco by a vessel from Alaska, and the word "Klondike" was on every tongue, Mr. Miller was engaged to push forward to the new camp and furnish the world reports of the El Dorado of the Arctic. He has returned after an experience which few would care to undergo, and during the past few months has been relating some of his adventures on the lecture platform.

This lecture is to be given at the Macdonough Theater in Oakland tonight for the benefit of the Associated Charities and those who attend may be assured of a graphic description of Mr. Miller's experiences in the Klondike with the benefit of his opinion upon Uncle Sam's arctic empire.

You can make the most money if you select a place naturally situated for a town, located in the direct line of up-to-date public and private improvements, easily accessible by cheap and frequent railway and water transportation lines to a great commercial and manufacturing metropolis and other existing business centers, yet far enough away from any to insure of its becoming a prosperous, self supporting and independent community.

As to combine all these advantages and many others. It offers splendid inducements to those about to start business of any description.

For suburban homes it rivals any of the thickly populated centers around the bay.

FRATERNAL.

THE NEWS OF THE LODGE ROOMS.

A number of interesting events from the fraternal world will be found synopsized below:

Eagle Metaphors.

In the current number of The Eagle, the official organ of the fraternal order of Eagles, which lately made so triumphant an entree into this city, Grand Lecturer Thomas is credited with an address from which the following excerpt is made:

"If I might advise, it would be that the world looks with astonishment at our growth and would inquire the cause, tell them that we give to our fellow man opportunity and the helping hand of friendship and by our acts prove ourselves unselfish in our devotion to his welfare; that we put precept into practice, keeping our hearts warm with Eagles' love that we may be an example to the aged and a guide to the youth of the land. Tell them that we emulate the aerie monarch whose name we bear; that discords can never be known in our midst for back-biting and slanders are fitted only for a vulture's gorge and not an eagle's feast. Inhale only the pure ozone of fraternal love and charity. Then will you speak words of love and kindness one of another. On the wreck of precedent we have established principle; on the altar of justice, we have crucified selfishness, ambition and dogma. Our cornerstones are charity, love, truth, and equality. The keystone to our fraternal arch is justice."

It may be remarked that these high-flown words fall on unsympathetic ears in this section of the State. The Oakland Aerie has been disrupted, the Eagles, patriarchs and those only with pin-feathers, have not only surrendered the charter but have also retired from the order. Similar disaffection has been experienced in San Francisco. In this section, the Order of Eagles is a thing of the past. In its place will soon be a new order known as the Bohemian Order of American Eagles. A new ritual will be provided, new principles will be introduced and there will be a headquarters of the organization established in San Francisco. For these reasons, as also for the fact that this disaffection has been occasioned by indiscreet conduct on the part of the grand officers of the Eagles, the high-flown rhetoric of the grand lecturer sounds very strangely indeed to Eagles that were in this community.

Elk's New Hall.

On next Thursday night the new lodgeroom of Oakland lodge, B. P. O. E. on Broadway near Twelfth street will be formally dedicated. The place comprises a reading room, billard room, buffet, banquet room, lodge room and retiring apartments. The group is the handsomest of the kind in this section of the State. The dedicatory services will be on a scale of completeness never attempted here before.

Knights of Pythias.

Page A. J. Fane received the Esquire rank in a most impressive manner at the session of Oakland lodge, No. 103 held Friday night. Those who were in charge of the ceremony are to be commended for the proficiency of their work.

The genial K. of R. and S., Brother E. J. Murphy demonstrated that he is entitled to his appellation, the Cicero of No. 103.

Among the many visitors present who assisted in making the convention a pleasant one with declamation, song and story were Brothers Doolittle of Fresno; Botte of Montana; Gregory of Idaho; Morton of Chicago, and Holland of No. 17.

Active preparations are being made for the conferring of the amplified rank of knight at the convention of Oakland lodge tomorrow evening at its Castle Hall, Twelfth and Franklin streets. The orchestra promises to have some startling effects in the music, specially arranged for the occasion. A most cordial invitation is extended to members of the local lodges and sojourning brethren to avail themselves of this opportunity.

PIEDMONT LODGE.

At the regular convention of Piedmont Lodge last Monday night, the following officers were elected for the approaching term: Chancellor Commander, C. Muller; vice-chancellor, M. L. Gilogly; prelate, Dr. C. A. Yocrolo; master-at-arms, A. E. Wharton; keeper of records and seals, E. Schwarzbaum; master of finance, E. Rorirer; master of exchequer, R. C. Johnstone; master of work, C. H. Johnsen; inner guard, A. Everson; outer guard, E. N. Myers.

Two applications for membership were received, one by invitation and one by transfer card.

WEST OAKLAND LODGE, 111.

On Tuesday evening, West Oakland lodge elected the following officers: Chancellor commander, Brown; vice-chancellor, Charles Lewis; prelate, John Crossman; master-of-work, Sweeney; master-at-arms, Tormey; keeper of records and seals, C. T. Spaulding; master of finance, C. L. Wisner; master of exchequer, C. Peterson; inner guard, Lursh; outer guard, Charles Roeder.

Rathbone Sisters.

Calanthe Temple, No. 6, last Tuesday evening received Brother James E. Doolittle and wife by card, formerly of Hermion Temple, No. 11. It also initiated Brothers Warren E. Anglin and bride, John Sloan and William McCarty.

Brother Smith of West Oakland was elected and will be initiated on Tuesday next.

The Temple decided, in lieu of its usual bi-monthly social to give a home-social as a reception to its new members and their families and to that end appointed Sisters Larmer, Bonham and Muller as a committee to make the necessary preparations.

Sister Hartman of Santa Cruz thanked the sisters for many courtesies shown her while visiting in this city.

Sister Mann who has been absent for six weeks received a royal reception on resuming her station in the Temple.

Remarks were made also by Sisters Ida Doolittle, Anglin, Muller, Wilson, and Brothers McCarty, Sloan, Bair, Doolittle, Cans, Holland and others.

This evening, several members pay a fraternal visit to San Francisco Temple No. 11.

The following officers have been elected for the ensuing term: Past chief, Lucy Holland; M. E. C., Theresa E. Mann; ex-senior, Elinor Hamm; ex-junior, Lulu E. Kolleh; manager, Sallie Bonham; M. of R. and C., Isabelle Bruce; M. of F., Lottie Climo; protector, Eva Larmer; O. G., Emily Collins.

Modern Trojans.

At the regular meeting of Athens lodge No. 9, Modern Trojans, on Wednesday evening several candidates were initiated and other important business was transacted.

The committee having charge of the social dance held on the 7th inst. made a very favorable report and on motion it was decided to hold another social in the near future. These entertainments not only bring out a majority of the members, but also strangers on whom the lodge deputies can work.

On Wednesday evening, June 21st, this lodge will nominate officers for the ensuing term and all members are requested to be present.

Orange Lodge.

The usual meeting of Washington's Chosen Few, L. O. L. No. 250 was held in Cameron Hall, Thirteenth avenue and Sixteenth street, on Saturday evening. There was a full turn-out of members and a very enthusiastic meeting was the result. One member was initiated in the orange degree and two applications were received.

An anniversary sermon will be preached in the Eighth Avenue Methodist Church by the Rev. Brother Needham on the first Sunday evening of July. Members from San Francisco are invited to be present.

The committee on the anniversary picnic to be held in Shellmound park on the 12th of July reports great progress and a very enjoyable time is promised.

The arch purple degree will be conferred at the next meeting. A full attendance of the members is expected.

Masonic.

Brooklyn Lodge No. 25, F. and A. M., at East Oakland, will confer the first degree on the evening of Tuesday, June 20th.

The third degree will be conferred by Live Oak lodge No. 61, F. and A. M., tomorrow evening. Masons are invited. There will be music and a banquet.

Ladies of the Macabees.

The ladies of Oakland Hive No. 14, L. O. T. M., feel much elated over their recent additions to the membership. Over thirty applications being the result of the late contest, which closed last week and was appropriately celebrated at that meeting by a delightful banquet given in honor of the winning side. The occasion was one of which the ladies may well be proud. Two-thirds of the entire membership being present, and no end of good things to eat and drink, to say nothing of the enlivening and mirth provoking costumes of the cake walkers, which latter, was noted the high card of the evening. The cake being won by Miss Alice Wright, record keeper, and Mrs. Stowers, sergeant of the Hive.

At the review last evening one new member was initiated, and one transfer card received.

Past Lady Commander, Mrs. Aydelotte leaves on next Tuesday for a six months' visit to her old home in Ohio, and to attend the biennial review of the Supreme Hive to be held at Port Huron, Michigan. On July 18th, she will be accompanied on her Eastern trip by her sister, Miss Alice Wright, who for nearly three years just passed has so efficiently and faithfully performed the work of record keeper of the Hive. Owing to her intention of remaining in the East, Miss Wright tendered her resignation last evening as record keeper of the Hive, which the members were loath to accept.

Mrs. Edna Patton was then elected to fille the vacancy and that she might at once enter upon the duties of her office, was immediately installed.

KNIGHTS OF THE MACABEES.

The Knights of Oakland Tent, No. 17, K. O. T. M., are forging rapidly ahead with a steadily increasing membership. At their last review, eight new applications were received. The visit made to Golden West Tent, San Francisco, last week by Oakland Tent's Degree Team, was one of enjoyment and profit to both the visitors and the visited. Golden West Tent knows a thing or two when it comes to entertaining. The work done on that occasion by the team was pronounced the best seen in the history of the Tent. On next Monday evening a large class of candidates are to be initiated. It is excepted that the Tent will reach its two hundred mark by July 1st.

Degree of Honor.

Notwithstanding the extremely warm weather Wednesday evening, Ivy Lodge, No. 4, Degree of Honor, A. O. U. W., had its usual excellent attendance.

During recess, several amusing games were indulged in.

On motion of Brother Marks it was unanimously decided to have a picnic on July 4th.

Brother Isaacs then proposed that the picnic should be given by the brothers of the lodge to the fair sisters who had always so generously provided the weekly new attractions for the delectation of all.

Chief of Honor, Mrs. Chloupek appointed Brother Cogan chairman of the picnic committee which choice was loudly applauded.

The committee was requested to bring in a full report by next meeting.

The dramatic committee was also requested to report by next Wednesday.

A delegation from Ivy Lodge will visit Myrtle Lodge, East Oakland this evening. Lady of Honor, Mrs. Emma Garrison requested as many as can to try and be present.

Knights and Ladies of Honor.

Tuesday evening Oakland Lodge, No. 985, K. and L. of H., elected the following officers for the ensuing year: L. H. Wolfe, Pro.; Mrs. M. Gehring, V. Pro.; Mrs. M. E. Cummings, secretary; J. R. Dixon, treasurer; Mrs. F. Weber, chaplain; Mrs. Viers, guide; J. A. Colquhoun, C. of G.; W. B. Greenebaum, G. and S. Installation and banquet will be on July 11th. It is expected the Grand Protector and other grand lodge officers will be present and conduct the installation ceremonies.

Mrs. Louise Bigler, present presiding officer of Oakland Lodge, has been appointed district deputy for Alameda county for the ensuing year.

Grand Protector has appointed Mrs. M. E. Cummings of Oakland one of the Deputy Grand Protectors.

Grand Army of the Republic.

Lyon Post, No. 8, has elected James J. Cahill as Post Commander, vice P. W. Carroll, resigned. Commander Carroll will serve until the first Tuesday in January next.

Native Daughters.

One of the most successful Grand Parlors, Native Daughters of the Golden West, which has ever assembled in this State is that which is now in session at Stockton. There is a large attendance of delegates, and the welcome which they received at the hands of the Stocktonians will induce them to long retain a recollection of their visit.

The Parlors of this section are represented in the gathering as follows:

Aloha Parlor, No. 106, of Oakland—Mrs. Libbie Rooney.

Piedmont Parlor, No. 87, of Oakland—Mrs. E. L. Swaney and Mrs. Tillie Frick.

Alameda Parlor, No. 18, of Alameda—Mrs. Sophie L. Schroeder.

The reports of the various officers show that the order is in a successful condition. During the past year the charters of six Parlors were surrendered, but seven Parlors were organized in their stead.

The reports from the district grand deputies showed increased activity and interest in the work of the order.

In the subordinate lodges at the present time there are 3,185 members, of whom 626 joined the order during the past year.

Alta Parlor, it was shown, leads in members and finances, having 240 names on the rolls and $1,457 in the treasury.

The receipts of the subordinate Parlors during the year amounted to $20,010.70 and the disbursements were $18,314.11. Benefits have been paid aggregating $1,130 during the past year. There are on hand in subordinate parlors $14,023.61.

Modern Trojans.

Alph Lodge No. 1, Modern Trojans, held its usual weekly meeting at Lorin Hall on Wednesday eveninfg, June 8th, with a large attendance of members.

The monthly social meeting of the lodge takes place tonight, June 15th, at Lorin Hall, when the spacious lodge room will be beautiful with its decoration of flowers and evergreens, which the ladies and gentlemen of the committee have arranged with picturesque effect.

The social gathering this month is in the form of a necktie party, which promises to lend interest to the event. There will be no musical program, but the evening will be devoted to dancing. Good music has been provided and as a large number of invitations has been issued a brilliant assemblage will take the floor. On June 25th Alpha Lodge holds its annual picnic at Glenwood Park, and from the many tickets already sold it is expected that at least three trains of cars will be needed to convey the picnickers to the scene.

A long list of valuable prizes has been announced for the successful contestants in the various events.

Daughters of Liberty.

During the past month the Daughters of Liberty have been making great advances.

At the last session five candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order. A number of applications were also received.

The Daughters gave a delightful surprise party last Saturday evening in honor of some of its new members, Mrs. Charity Braswell and Mrs. Rose Braswell at their beautiful home on the lake shore. Games, dancing and a dainty repast were indulged in. A most enjoyable time was experienced.

Sister Dunlap, noble grand of Sunset lodge, spoke very agreeably, inviting all present to attend the social on next Friday evening.

Sister Carl, chairman of the Entertainment Committee, announced that an entertainment and dance would be given at Chapman Hall on Wednesday evening, June 28th. An excellent program is in preparation and all who attend are assured of a pleasant time.

HARBOR LODGE.

Harbor Lodge No. 253, I. O. O. F., initiated two candidates into the mysteries and work of the second degree of Odd Fellowship last evening.

The good work of this degree team has to be seen to appreciate this degree. There was a number of visitors present who had visited Harbor Lodge especially to witness the work. They heartily enjoyed and complimented the team's work.

Business of importance was also transacted. Several important motions were passed upon.

There are several brothers upon the sick list.

The visiting committee reports all doing well.

The newly elected officers are now in the hands of the district deputy, who is showing them their work for the ensuing term. From his reports Harbor lodge will not be backward about coming forward with a fine set of officers for the ensuing term.

Car Men's Union.

There was another enthusiastic meeting of the Carmen's Social and Benevolent Society last night, a number of members being present.

The newly elected officers will be installed at the first meeting in July.

An entertainment and dance are now being discussed and it is expected that they will take place in the near future.

One of the features of the organization is a monthly smoker, which is always largely attended.

The organization now has a membership of about 200 car men. There are, however, still about 150 car men in the business who have not as yet affiliated with the society.

At last night's meeting there was one member initiated.

OF

MISS ELIZABETH L. WATT AND DONALD Y. CAMPBELL

One of the most fashionable weddings of the summer was that of Miss Elizabeth Leighton Watt to Donald Yorke Campbell, which took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, 1204 Madison street.

The parlors and hall of the home were charmingly decorated. Large potted ferns filled every nook and window corner. Fragrant bunches of white sweet peas were mingled effectively with graceful fern leaves. The lower window, in which the young people stood while the words were pronounced which made them man and wife, was framed with lilies and silly flowers accentuated with ferns and dashes of graceful nodding oats. Long, beautiful grasses were used with striking effect for wreathing with other flowers and setting off their beauty.

The hall was rendered charmingly beautiful with a tasteful combination and arrangement of broom grass and tulips. The dining room decorations harmonized with those used in the parlors and hall. The color scheme of green and white, which can hardly be improved upon, was employed there also with the same pleasing effect.

As the impressive strains of a wedding march rendered by an orchestra under the direction of C. Henry Randall pealed forth, the bridal party entered and passed slowly up the room to the bowered window, where the ceremony was performed.

Rev. C. R. Brown, pastor of the First Congregational Church of this city, officiated. He was assisted by Rev. Dr. Bakewell, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church.

The bride appeared charming in a gown of white duchess satin Marie Antoinettes style, with fichu of elegant old point lace. She carried a large, handsome bunch of American beauty roses.

The bridesmaids wore pretty gowns of white organdie trimmed with graceful folds of real lace. In their hands they carried bunches of roses. Miss de Fremery was maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Miss McKee, Miss Nellie Chabot, Miss Louise de Fremery, Miss Louise Campbell, Miss Louise Crosby, Miss Jo Crosby.

The best man was Mr. Sproule of San Francisco.

The groomsmen were Frank Deering, James McKee, Alex. Campbell, Thomas Berry, David McClure, R. H. Fitzgerald and Will Watt.

Mrs. Watt, the bride's mother, wore an elegant gown of black chantilly lace over black satin. She wore also a magnificent set of emeralds and diamonds.

Mrs. C. O. G. Miller, the bride's sister, appeared in a handsome gown of heliotrope moire, with trimmings of real lace.

The wedding ceremonies were followed by a reception which was attended by about 300 guests.

Supper was served by Hallahan, the caterer, in a spacious marque erected for the purpose on the lawn at the side of the garden. Needless to say the menu was delicious. The tent was transformed into a miniature fairyland with growing palms and ferns and a profusion of cut and potted flowers. A pretty feature was several Indian hanging baskets filled with gladiolas and ferns. A string band, half-hidden among the ferns and flowers, played entrancing music during the evening.

The bride is the charming and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Watt of this city. Her father for a long time has been one of the leading business men of San Francisco. The bride is a welcome member in the leading social sets of both this city and across the bay.

The groom is a popular society gentleman and a scholar.

WHY THE CAT NEVER CAME BACK.

THRILLING STORY OF THE COUNTY JAIL.

Any one living between Oakland and Newark who may be startled by the apparition of a big cat hurtling through space with each particular hair on end like quills upon the fretful porcupine will confer a favor on Deputy Sheriff George Wales by reporting the fact to him at once at the County Jail.

Mr. Wales lives in Newark, and as his duties as Jailer in the County Jail necessitate his absence from home all day, he installed the family cat in the jail as a sort of connecting link between his daily round of duty and the haven of his domestic joys. The cat took kindly to his new environment at first, and his contented purring as he waxed fat and sleek was music to his master's ears. Lately, however, a great change has come over the animal. Whether it was the depressing influence of daily contact with the prisoners at the jail, or the deprivation of the feline society of which he had formerly been a leader in moonlight soirees and back-yard debating circles, is not known, but whatever may have been the cause, the change in his pet's health and spirits was so pronounced as to arouse grave apprehensions in the mind of Mr. Wales.

The cat became a victim of the dread malady which has ruined the lives of so many promising felines—insomnia. He yowled so dismally all night that the prisoners threatened to have the Deputy Sheriff indicted by the Grand Jury on a charge of inflicting cruel and unusual punishment. In the daytime he lay around under foot, getting in everybody's way and too stupid from loss of sleep or ennui to even recognize his master when spoken to. His fur came out in spots, and he presented such a seedy, disreputable appearance generally that Mr. Wales became actually ashamed of his once handsome and sprightly companion.

This morning the Deputy Sheriff had an inspiration. There is an electric battery in the County Jail. Electricity works wonders on human beings, Mr. Wales reasoned, why should its judicious application not be equally beneficial to cats? He at once enlisted the aid of his assistant, George Taylor, who is an expert electrician. Mr. Wales seized the astonished cat by the hind leg, while Mr. Taylor took a firm grip on the front leg. Each man then grasped an electrode of the battery, and Mr. Taylor turned on about 2,000 volts, of which the cat, of course, got the entire benefit.

Then came a burst of thunder sound; The cat—oh, where was he?

With one frightful yell, that rang through the prison corridors like the shriek of a fiend in torment, the cat made a mighty bound that carried him nearly to the ceiling, turned half a dozen somersaults, alighted on his feet and sped through the open office door into the street with an initial velocity of about 2,000 feet a second, leaving the two specialists in heroic treatment for that tired feeling staring at each other in open-mouthed amazement.

The cat had vanished so quickly that it was impossible to tell which direction the animal took, but Mr. Wales divined that it was headed for its old home in Newark. He rushed to the telephone and frantically called up Daniel McCarthy at San Leandro.

"Say, Mac," he shouted, "did you see my cat go through town just now?"

"Cat? Cat?" repeated McCarthy in a puzzled tone. "I haven't seen any cat. Something that looked like a runaway comet just now shot across Smythes Huff's place, and the whole town is out looking for the celestial vagrant, whatever it may be. Is that what—"

But Wales was already ringing up George Oakes at Haywards. To him he addressed the same query he had propounded to McCarthy. Oakes had seen no cat, but something that faintly resembled an elongated streak of fur, radiating electric sparks, had just whizzed through the main street of Haywards and caused three runaways. Without waiting for any more details, Wales called up George Fisher, who runs the depot at Niles, and asked him if he had seen a cat that appeared to have forgotten something go through Niles just now. Fisher knew nothing of any cat, but he had caught a glimpse of some uncanny thing streaking through space like a meteor and leaving a blue trail behind it in the atmosphere. John Mattos of Centerville was the next man to be rung up and questioned by Wales. Mattos had seen no cat, but there was a tremendous excitement among the Portuguese ranchers there, and they were scattering in all directions.

The Deputy Sheriff had heard enough to assure him that the animal had reached Newark all right, but he is convinced that there is at least one cat that will never come back—to the County Jail.

PLANS FOR THE SANTA FE'S NEW STEAMER.

How the Ocean Wave Will Be Fitted for Ferry Service.

Some New Vessels in the Course of Construction.

The side wheel steamer Ocean Wave, which was formerly used on the Columbia river and Puget Sound passenger service and which was recently bought by the Santa Fe Company, is now lying in the Oakland estuary.

It is the intention of the Santa Fe to fit this steamer up as a ferry boat for use in their contemplated service between Dumbarton Point and San Francisco.

She will probably be held as a reserve boat and used only in case of accident or when repairs are needed on the regular boat, which is now under construction at the Union Iron Works. The new boat is to be built of iron and will resemble the broad gauge ferry boat Berkeley in that it will have screw propellors.

No changes in the machinery of the Ocean Wave are intended, but extensive alterations in regard to shape are required to fit her for ferry service. At present she is built sharp at the bows like an ocean steamer. This necessitates the entire reconstruction of that part of the vessel so as to allow the ingress and egress of passengers and general traffic over the end of the boat and also to make her fit the ferry slips.

Mr. Sherman, who was formerly in the employ of the Central Pacific Company and who superintended the construction of the ferry boats of that company, and who, it is understood, is superintending the construction of the various vessels now being built for the Santa Fe, has finished taking the necessary measurements for the required changes in the Ocean Wave and as soon as the plans are drawn up the contract for the work will probably be let. The ship builders, Messrs. Hay and Wright, have also been overlooking the steamer and will probably get the contract.

ESTUARY NOTES.

Messrs. Hay and Wright's wharf is surrounded by a number of vessels at present. The schooner Helen N. Kimball is under the sheers taking a new mast.

The Peerless is tied up alongside the wharf undergoing some minor repairs.

The Robert R. Hind, a new four-masted schooner is just being completed for Hinds, Rolf & Co.

Hay & Wright also have under construction a schooner rigged steamer for the Wilder's Steamship Co. She is to be called the Klauiani and as soon as her builders are through with her she will be taken to the Union Iron Works to have her boilers and engines put in. She will be used in the Sandwich Island trade. Another vessel that is beginning to take shape is the four-masted schooner Filipino. She will be used in local trade.

The United States steamer Gedney was hauled out on to the Marine Railways last night and is having her bottom cleaned and is undergoing a general overhauling.

J. C. Beetle has nearly completed a 45½ foot steam launch, for Henry Peterson, the boatman at the Folsom street wharf, San Francisco. It will be provided with a Hercules gas engine. It will be called the Sybil and will be used by Mr. Peterson to assist the Amy and William D. These boats are at present engaged in carrying the San Francisco morning papers to this side of the bay and are also engaged in general passenger service.

CHERRY CROP IS ALMOST COMPLETE LOSS

A. L. Stone Tells of the Great Damage to Orchards.

Early Drouth and Late Rains Wrecked the Trees.

A. L. Stone, in an interview on the cherry crop stated that it was the lightest ever known on the coast, all the cherry producing districts in the State being effected. The consequence is that very little fruit is being canned or shipped East and even the supply of fresh fruit for local consumption is light and prices range extremely high.

Mr. Stone estimates the present yield at about one-fortieth of that of last year.

The total failure of cherries was caused partly by the drouth of last year, which effected the trees so that they failed to properly set fruit buds; and partly by the heavy March rains which came just when cherries were in full bloom, washing the pollen off and causing a lack of fertilization.

The effects of the early drouth will be felt for many years in the cherry market for it not only damaged the yield this year but caused some of the trees to die.

Many of the trees are effected so seriously that they will probably have to be grubbed out, while orchards all over the country are put back so that it will take them years to get in condition for another full crop.

"Our Arctic Empire" by Joaquin Miller tonight at the Macdonough.

FINE SHOW IS COMING TO MACDONOUGH

"The Moth and the Flame," the most forceful and intense of all modern American dramas, will be presented by the Herbert Kelcey-Effie Shannon Company at the Macdonough Theater next Tuesday evening, and it is safe to predict that the occasion will be one of the greatest dramatic treats to which the amusement patrons have yet been invited. In this play, the author his mingled his lights and shades very cleverly, and the local coloring is thrown in by the hand of a keen observer. He employs very strong antithises in masterful fashion. The contrasted mingling of tragedy and comedy in the first act, where the merry dancers at the children's party encircle the mother and daughter upon whom the knowledge of the suicide of husband and father has just fallen, is admirable throughout and well executed, and the same, in a forcible way, is true of the by-play in the church pews while the tragic event is pending at the altar. In this scene the comedy is really brilliant, the lines bright, caustic and smart.

As the bad man of the play (with great possibilities of good under his skin) Mr. Kelcey is really admirable. He has a hard task of allotted him, but whatever emotional phase he is called upon to to delineate he never fails to give it adequate form and force. Miss Shannon is nearly as good in a part which is hardly less onerous at times, and in the closing act her art is almost flawless. Miss Abbott is delicious, and even when she ought to be dreadfully shocking in her unconventional freedom of speech and sentiment, she shocks so gently that one positively enjoys the sensation, and without moral detriment. All of the others are entitled to commendation, especially Mr. McRae, Mr. Boag, Mr. See, Miss Reals and Miss Ellis.

The last act is as near perfect dramatic construction as any bit of dramatic work that has ever eminated from a native dramatist. It is virile, realistic and thrilling.

A HAPPY COMBINATION.

Hot Weather and Low Prices for Hot-Weather Apparel.

The men of San Francisco and vicinity have no cause for complaint this season on the score of what it costs to become the possessor of a seasonable suit of clothes.

Ordinarily San Franciscans are reluctant to purchase genuine lightweight summer suits. They cost as much and often more than heavier material, and you are never sure of being able to get your money's worth out of them for lack of seasonable weather.

But this year all indications and the opinions of prophets, wise and otherwise, point to an abundance of warm days this summer. And here, right in the nick of time, comes a great special sale of men's spring and summer suits by a big wholesale and manufacturing house—at which a very serviceable suit may be bought for $5.75; while, if you want to be liberal and help to keep the money in circulation, you can fit yourself out in first-class style for $11.75.

Brown Bros. & Co., whose big establishment is at 121-123 Sansome street, have been established for over thirty years. While ordinarily bargain sales are often somewhat slippery things, the high reputation of this concern throughout the entire West makes it reasonably sure that this is a genuine event and that customers at this sale will obtain more than their money's worth.

ARLINGTON IS BEHIND BARS,

Will Have to Explain His Love-Making to a Jury.

Charles Arlington, who has robbed a number of women while going under various aliases, was held to answer by Judge Quinn yesterday on the charge of grand larceny. His bail was fixed at $3,000.

The particular charge on which Arlington was examined was the robbing of Mrs. M. Smith of $214.85 at Piedmont Springs a few weeks ago.

The hearing has been attended with a number of interesting scenes. On one occasion Mrs Smith created much excitement by attempting to knock Arlington down in court with a chair. Yesterday Attorney Aldrich asked to have her searched, fearing that she might have a weapon with her. The court, however, did not see any cause for alarm and declined to make the order.

Mrs. J. A. Henn told of the meeting between Arlington and his victim at the Merritt House.

J. P. de Camp testified that he had sold temperance drinks to the couple at his store in Piedmont.

Detective Hallard told of Arlington's arrest. The case was then submitted and Arlington was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff.

TIED UP PASTOR'S SALARY AND FORCED HIM HIM OUT OF PULPIT.

Rev. Franklin Rhoda, a well-known resident of Oakland, has resigned the patorate of the Valona Presbyterian Church as the result of the enmity of Treasurer George of the board of trustees.

Valona is a small town near Crockett and Rev. Rhoda has been the pastor for five years, during the greater part of which period, it is stated by the pastor's friends, he has been at loggerheads with Mr. George.

Until recently the church has been maintained largely by the Presbytery. Rev. Rhoda worked hard to make his charge self-supporting, with such success that last January it was decided to make the church independent of the financial aid of the Presbytery. The change went into effect April 15th.

George opposed the proposition vigorously, but without success, so he hit on a new plan—to hold back the pastor's salary.

The other church officers, with whom their minister was very popular, attempted to force the treasurer to pay, but as he handled the funds they were powerless. This was a body blow.

A couple of weeks ago Rev. Rhoda sent in his resignation and came back here. He is now residing with his sister, Mrs. Brendenmuhl of Fruitvale.

After he resigned a meeting of the trustees was held and the wrath of the hitherto implacable George was appeased to the extent that he was induced to pay the back salary, in addition to which a present of $80 was voted to the retired minister.

At a meeting of the Presbytery in this city Monday night Rev. Barton Perry of the San Leandro Presbyterian Church was selected to preach the sermon at Valona next Sunday and also, according to the Presbyterian custom, declare the pulpit vacant.

Meantime Treasurer George is gleeful.

WHY THE ALAMEDA COUNTY FARMERS SHOULD BE THANKFUL.

EDITORIAL.

Why should Alameda County farmers be thankful?

Because they are riding on the top of the wave.

That wave of prosperity is here and the Alameda county farmer is on its crest.

He is in the saddle, where he belongs, and where he has the best right to be.

Alameda county is, no doubt, the most favored agricultural and horticultural region in the State of California, and that means the most favored region in the universe.

But this county's general advantages for its farmer citizens need not here be enumerated. The special blessings pertinent to this most favorable season may be glanced at.

Plentiful early and later rains the present season have brought fine crops in their train.

Hay, the other staple crops, pasturage, the dairy interests, the fruits, both small and large, garden produce of all descriptions, are doing fairly well, and many of these items are in exceptional abundance of promise.

This is not to say that every item in every portion of the fifty thousand acres of this county, which is as large as a smaller State, is all that our farmers could have desired. Did you ever know a many-cropped farmer who did not find some occasion to grumble? The rains, which came in time to save and assure the hay crop, were a little too late for our beet-growers, and they were late enough to do some injury to budding cherry and apricot trees. Alameda county's perennial strawberry crop was impaired in places by later rains.

The grape crop is not so redundant this year as to break the market, but that is distinctly something for growers to be thankful for.

Against any modification of the crop results of this county that can be named there is to be offset the fact of a universally keen demand and corresponding good prices.

Where this county's yield of small or tree fruits has been shortened a little, similar fruits in large portions of the Ohio and Mississippi valleys have been totally cut off. As a consequence agents for Eastern canneries and commission houses are here practically taking our whole output at what the inhabitants of bountiful California are bound to consider prohibitive prices.

This is bad for resident consumers of the home product, for the householders of Oakland, but it is a splendid thing for the farmers of Alameda county that they receive even for a fraction of their least successful crops the present year more than they sometimes can command, for phenomenally affluent yields.

Yes, the Alameda county farmer is on top.

Therefore, he ought to be duly thankful.
